

The Vroom-Yetton Decision Model

Deciding How to Decide

When you have to make a decision, it's often difficult to know if you should involve others or go it alone.

Sometimes, it's preferable to lead by example and be authoritative. But, to avoid conflict or making a poor choice, it may be better to consult with your team.

The Vroom-Yetton model is designed to help you to figure out the best decision-making approach.
